

EVENT PROGRAMME

Plan for the day

A practical day focused on hearing loss in care homes

9.30am			Arrival, coffee, tea and pastries
WHY IS HEARING LOSS IN CARE HOMES AN ISSUE?
10am		Andrew Goodwin (Engage)		Introduction
10.10am		Jenny Pattinson (CEO Nightingale Hammerson)		Hearing loss in care homes - Nightingale Hammerson's experience
10.15am		Andrew Goodwin & Padraic Garrett (Engage)		Hearing loss - an experiential exercise
10.30am		Professor Martin Green OBE (CEO Care England)		Why is Care England embarking on this campaign?
10.40am		Residents with hearing loss		Residents with hearing loss talking about their experiences
10.45am		Anna Kochan (relative of residents with hearing loss)		Families of residents with hearing loss talking about their experiences
WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT?
10.50am		Ingrid Sellman (Expert by experience)		"Taking control of my hearing loss"
11am		Gabrielle Renee (Hearing Therapist at Hearing Connect)		The importance of addressing the biopsychosocial impact of hearing loss
11am		Judith Morgan (Equipment specialist at Hearing Connect)		Equipment that can support good communication and social interaction
11.05am		Dr Rebecca Millman & Dr Hannah Cross (Manchester Centre for Audiology and Deafness)		Current research on hearing loss in care homes - "We're winging it"
11.20am		Dr Zena Aldgridge (Nursing and midwifery associate director for social care, National Institute for Health and Care Research)		Culture change - putting residents with hearing loss in the centre
11.25am		Visit stands / break
11.45am		Tymphahealth		Demonstration of earwax removal and putting procedures in place
11.45am		Andrew Goodwin & Padraic Garrett (Engage)		Experiential training leading to sustained changes in behaviour
11.45am		Pritesh Nathwani (CEO Symphony Sound)		Improving home acoustics and introducing innovative equipment
12.45pm		Visit stands / break		Lunch break
1.45pm		Andrew Goodwin & Padraic Garrett (Engage)		Reflections from the floor of the day so far and Q & A
2pm		Speaker to be confirmed		Reflections on issues facing audiology and care homes
2.10pm		Nightingale Hammerson Therapies team		Holistic assessments and empowering ways of working
WHY IS IT IMPORTANT FOR YOUR CARE SERVICE?
2.25pm		Jenny Pattinson (CEO Nightingale Hammerson)		Formulating a hearing loss strategy for your care home
2.35pm		Richard Ayres (Social Care Advisor Care England) & Fraser Rickatson (Policy Advisor Care England)		How to actively participate in the campaign - next steps
2.55pm		Break & networking
4pm		Finish			